Unleashing the Positive Power of Differences: Polarity Thinking in Our Schools

Jane Kise • 9781743307717

This illuminating book shows how education leaders can bring opposing groups to common ground, resulting in a solid plan built on diverse wisdom. Readers will find: ways to recognise polarities, map the positive and negative aspects, and channel energy wasted on disagreement toward a greater common purpose; tools for introducing and working with polarities; polarity mapping to help leaders improve processes for leading change and creating buy-in; and ways to use polarity with students as a framework for higher-level thinking.

Differentiated Coaching: A Framework for Helping Teachers Change

Jane Kise • 9781742391021

Differentiated Coaching applies the latest research and theory of personality type, multiple intelligences, experiential learning models and mind styles models to create a differentiated approach for staff development. This innovative resource touches on six key elements. When teachers understand how their strengths and beliefs may lock them into practices that limit freedom to help students succeed, they can begin to entertain fresh possibilities and stay open to new avenues for professional growth.

Opening the Door to Coaching Conversations

Marceta Fleming Reilly, Linda Gross Cheliotis • 9781743307045

A leader doesn't have to solve every problem personally to be effective. In fact, helping others learn to resolve issues and implementing their own solutions is the key to sustainable leadership and an empowered staff. This companion and follow-up book to Coaching Conversations brings the coaching style of leadership to life with stories from the experienced coaches on the Results Coaching team. Featuring examples of real people facing real problems who use coaching skills with great success, each chapter deals with a challenging leadership area and includes space for personal reflection, questions and next steps.

Intentional Leadership: 12 Lenses for Focusing Strengths, Managing Weaknesses, and Achieving Your Purpose

Jane Kise • 9781760014131

In Intentional Leadership, Jane A. G. Kise introduces the 12 Lenses for Leadership - a framework developed from extensive research on personality type and emotional intelligence that offers a meta-analysis of the essential tasks and attitudes of successful leaders. Through these lenses, you will learn how personality type informs decision making, how to identify and then compare your strengths and values to good leadership practice, how to identify your potential weaknesses and blind spots and how to use your strengths and weaknesses to optimise your leadership style.

Differentiation Through Personality Types: A Framework for Instruction, Assessment, and Classroom Management

Students' learning styles are as unique as their personalities. As a result, the most successful teachers are often those who understand how to adjust their educational techniques to honour students of all intelligences and backgrounds. This comprehensive resource, based on the author's years of research and experience, presents a usable, understandable framework that assists P-12 teachers in achieving success in today's differentiated classroom.

Differentiated School Leadership

Beth Russell, Jane Kise • 9781742392646

How can you help your leadership team collaborate and resolve conflicts in ways that improve student achievement? The authors demonstrate how understanding of personality types and individual leadership styles can help school leaders and team members understand one another's working preferences, work from individual strengths, uncover new areas for development, and distribute leadership responsibilities more effectively. This text provides: descriptions of leadership styles; ways to build a team; strategies for coping with leadership stress; a model for problem solving.
