LEARNING BY DOING: A Handbook for Professional Learning Communities at Work, Revised Third Edition

Richard DuFour, Rebecca DuFour, Robert Eaker, Thomas Many, Mike Mattos • 9781760565473

Rewritten for an Australian context, this revised version of Learning by Doing: A Handbook for Professional Learning Communities at Work, Third Edition is the best-selling guide for action that helps educators close the knowing-doing gap as they transform their schools into professional learning communities (PLCs). Gavin Grift and Colin Sloper worked closely with the original authors in creating Australia's first school recognised as an exemplar PLC at Work in 2010, and have now contributed their expert knowledge of that endeavour, and more, to this resource. Packed with real-world solutions and strategies, this revised third edition will become a treasured resource for individual educators and teacher teams at every level of your PLC.

TRANSFORMATIVE COLLABORATION: Five Commitments for Leading a Professional Learning Community

Tonia Flanagan, Gavin Grift, Kylie Lipscombe, Colin Sloper, Janelle Wills • 9781760017477

The authors of this book have cumulatively supported over 1000 schools to cultivate the collaborative culture required to meet the academic and social needs of every student. Transformative Collaboration: Five Commitments for Leading a Professional Learning Community is the outcome of this experience, and takes you beneath the surface of the school as professional learning community (PLC) to explore the critical commitments that leaders must make to truly transform school culture and get the results students deserve. This book provides insights, tips and techniques to help transform your school through collaboration with the goal of becoming a high-performing PLC.
