16-141-10

Pete Hall is a dynamic educator and speaker with a proven leadership track record. Hall served five years as a teacher, two years as an assistant principal and twelve years as a principal. His teaching career spanned three states and included primary, intermediate and middle school positions. He worked exclusively in Title I schools, including Anderson Elementary School, a turnaround school in Reno, Nevada. When he took over as principal in 2002, Anderson Elementary was one of the only schools in Nevada to have failed to make adequate yearly progress (AYP) for four consecutive years. Two short years later, it was the only Title I school in the state of Nevada to earn a "high-achieving" designation. For his tenacious and courageous leadership, Hall has been honoured with ASCD's Outstanding Young Educator Award (2004), Nevada's Martin Luther King Jr. Award (2005) and Phi Delta Kappan's Emerging Leaders Award (2009), among others. He was appointed to the Nevada Governor's Commission on Excellence in Education in 2005 and was selected to sit on the National Education Association's Great Public Schools Indicators Advisory Panel in 2010.

His published works include more than a dozen articles and six books. Pete earned an EdS in educational leadership from University of Nevada-Reno, an EdM in elementary education from Boston University and an AB in communications from University of California-Davis. He holds a National Principal Mentor Certificate from the National Association of Elementary School Principals and serves as a trainer and coach for the association's PALS mentoring program.

Phyllis Pajardo, Ann Cunningham-Morris, Deborah Childs-Bowen, Pete Hall, Alisa Simeral • 9781760019570

Principals navigate the dynamic complexities and subtleties of their schools every day. They promote, facilitate and lead efforts to achieve both tangible and intangible results throughout the school community. As the principalship has evolved and grown, so have the expectations of it. With that in mind, ASCD developed the Principal Leadership Development Framework (PLDF). The PLDF also offers 17 criteria of effective practice that allow leaders to focus on behaviours that have the greatest direct effect on the culture and status of learning and teaching.
