Caulfield Racecourse, Melbourne

1 Day Workshop 15 March 2010

Seven Steps to Successful Student Achievement

1 Day Workshop 16 March 2010

Flexible Grouping Differentiating the Curriculum

Day 1 Monday 15 March 2010

Seven Steps to Successful Student Achievement

In this workshop we will look at reasons for this type of underachievement and examine ways to guide such students to embrace academic challenges and choose demanding learning activities instead of the easiest ones. We will discuss how to encourage them to persist through times of disappointment or failure, how to learn from their mistakes and how to take responsibility for and find joy from their own learning.

- Developing self-confidence
- Setting short and long term goals
- Becoming motivated to learn
- Managing time and organisational skills
- Improving study skills
- Understanding assessments
- Dealing with 'the system'

Learn practical strategies to help your students as they become lifelong learners.

Recommended resources: Encouraging Achievement and Becoming an Achiever.

Day 2 Tuesday 16 March 2010

Flexible Grouping Differentiating the Curriculum: It's More Than Just Moving Their Seats in the Mixed Ability Classroom!

In this workshop we will discuss a number of practical, user-friendly strategies that teachers can implement in their classrooms immediately. These include flexible grouping, curriculum compacting, resident experts, tiered lessons and Carolyn's Individual Lesson Plan (ILPTM) format. You will leave this workshop with examples of differentiated lessons and an understanding of how to organise and manage a differentiated classroom.

- Flexible grouping
- Curriculum compacting
- Tiered individual lesson plans
- How to manage a differentiated classroom
- 13 guidelines for flexible grouping
- Ideas and strategies for differentiated lessons
- Advantages and disadvantages of grouping patterns
