

THE MARZANO INSTITUTE

The Art & Science of Teaching

Due to popular demand
1 DAY INSTITUTE JUST ADDED!

Wednesday 22 May 2013 - BRISBANE

The Art & Science of Teaching, highlights Dr Robert J. Marzano's well-researched practices that educators use to be truly effective in order to accomplish advances in student achievement. Through using Dr Marzano's methods, educators will learn which teaching strategies make the most difference in the classroom and how and when to use them.

Due to popular demand, Hawker Brownlow Professional Learning Solutions is running a ONE day Marzano Institute – The Art & Science of Teaching with Dr Tammy Heflebower. This is an overview of The Art & Science of Teaching and participants will leave the institute armed with practical strategies, effective solutions and concrete plans to implement within their school and classroom.

During this one-day overview, participants will:

- Explore the research behind each Instructional Design Question
- Learn the science behind strategies that have a high probability of increasing student achievement.
- Discover 10 essential questions to guide lesson design
- Align effective lessons into cohesive units of study
- Gain practical strategies for implementing the 10 essential questions
- Discover how 'The Art & Science of Teaching' model can be used as a vehicle for teacher professional growth and development
- Discover how teacher instructional rounds can be used to enhance collaboration and improve pedagogical skills
- Learn how to use 'The Art & Science of Teaching' to develop a school-wide language of instruction

This institute is the perfect first steps for schools interested in implementing the Art and Science of Teaching framework into their schools.
