

FRIENDLY SCHOOLS

ONE-DAY INSTITUTE

Caring About Every Child. Everywhere.

PERTH - Tuesday 24 November 2015

Current Evidence from Australian Schools

Don't miss this opportunity as Professor Donna Cross and Erin Erceg team up to provide our own WA educators with the latest research and most current evidence around pastoral care, social and emotional learning, childhood anxiety and whole-school bullying reduction processes and strategies.

The institute schedule is designed to provide both valuable information for participants who are new to Friendly Schools and want to know how to get involved as well as those who have already engaged with Friendly Schools and the ongoing research associated with Prof. Donna Cross and her team.

The feedback from last year's institute told us that WA educators are keen to keep up to date with the latest evidence and successful strategies from the child health promotion research in this area so we are committed to making this an annual event and look forward sharing with you all again this year.

SPEAKERS

Professor Donna Cross

Professor Donna Cross is a Winthrop Professor with the Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry and Health Sciences at the University of Western Australia and the Telethon Kids Institute. Donna has an international reputation for developing community-based interventions to reduce bullying and aggression among young people. She is currently the lead investigator on seven 3–5 year longitudinal research projects aiming to prevent bullying, cyberbullying and associated mental health harms among Australian children and adolescents. Her strong focus on translational strategies has culminated in the dissemination of school curriculum and bullying prevention resources to over 3000 Australian schools. Donna's research has contributed to sustainable policy and practice change, including sun safety policies (such as "no hat, no play") and national and state policy for bullying prevention and management.

Erin Erceg

Erin Erceg is currently working as lead trainer for the Friendly Schools initiative with Hawker Brownlow Professional Learning Solutions. Having spent 12 years with the Child Health Promotion Research Centre at Edith Cowan University in Western Australia, Erin's most significant roles relate to her work on research around aggression and bullying among young people. Other areas of research Erin has been involved in include capacity building for intervention in schools; secondary school transition factors; cyberbullying and its effects; reducing the effects of bullying among Aboriginal children; children's connectedness factors and mental health; building school capacity to engage parents and increase their connectedness to the whole-school environment; and the self-esteem and resilience of young people.
