Summary:

In this comprehensive resource on inclusive schooling, administrators, general and special educators, and parents explore how inclusive education can support a diverse student body at all year levels. They show how schools can meet standards and provide a 'least restrictive environment' for students with disabilities by using cooperative learning, teaming, multi-age grouping, multicultural education, social skills training, and educational technology applications. And they explain how to facilitate change by using universal design principles and other curricular, instructional, assessment, and organisational practices.

Key selling points:

- Provides a whole school approach to include special needs into the school.
- Uses real life examples to demonstrate the importance of inclusion.
- Encourages the inclusion of students with learning difficulties into every classroom.

Supporting resources:

- How to Manage Your Inclusive Classroom (2118)
- Professional Guide: The Inclusive Classroom (4779)
- Personalising Learning (NE8021)
