Summary:

Do you ever wonder whether researchers and professional developers really know what it's like to be a school leader? Do you sometimes struggle to connect articles and conference presentations with the challenges you face day to day? For many educators the answer to these questions is a resounding yes.

With Insights into Action: Successful School Leaders Share What Works, school leaders now have a resource that identifies the most important issues facing today's teachers and offers practical, effective strategies for success. Drawing on real world experience and interviews with nine distinguished practitioners – including Carol Ann Tomlinson, Richard DuFour, Baruti Kafele and James Popham – Insights into Action merges current research and theory with lessons from successful educators who have truly “been there, done that”. You'll learn:

- How to be a more effective leader, including ways to turn your school vision into reality;
- How to strengthen your learning community by differentiating instruction and leadership; and
- How to face the challenges of today, including ways to infuse technology into your school community, gather and apply useful data, and turn crises big and small into success for all.
