Summary:

Weird things are happening in the sleepy little town of Marnard – cyclones, fires and a mysterious disease. People think the strange, silent new boy at school has something to do with it. Mark feels like the only one who understands what it's like to be different. He wants to save Edward and his brother from the town's dangerous prejudice – but how?

This revised Australian edition deals with adolescent themes and is told in simple language that will appeal particularly to English language learners and students who struggle with reading. There is also an accompanying workbook, Passages: An Alien Spring – Student Workbook, available from Hawker Brownlow Education (1311). Read the sequel, Summer of Shame, to see what happens next!
