Summary:

Strange things are happening at Tyler High. Troublemaking students are disappearing, and Kathy isn't sure how she should feel. As the school gets more chaotic, she's more worried about her friend Todd. He was badly scarred when he tried to rescue a girl from a fire. But Kathy is beginning to realise that Todd has scars that are more than just skin deep. Could he be the one taking care of the troublesome students? And if he isn't, who is?

This revised Australian edition deals with adolescent themes and is told in simple language that will appeal particularly to reluctant readers, English language learners (ESL/ELL) and students who struggle with reading. There is also an accompanying workbook, Passages: Don't Blame the Children – Student Workbook, available from Hawker Brownlow Education (1300).
