Summary:

Valerie's has a scholarship to university in Melbourne, and she's working to earn money for her studies over the holidays. But things in her life take a tragic turn when her father is attacked and injured, just one of a series of attacks on taxi drivers in her town. Who is committing these crimes? Everyone's a suspect, right up to her new friend Gil, perhaps not as much of an idiot as she first thought. Valerie's life is spiralling out of control. When she really needs help, who will be there for her? The sequel to The Haunting of Hawthorne.

This revised Australian edition deals with adolescent themes and is told in simple language that will appeal particularly to English language learners (ELL/ESL) and students who struggle with reading. There is also an accompanying workbook, Passages: The Power of the Rose – Student Workbook, available from Hawker Brownlow Education (1308).
