Key Selling Points:

Summary:

Passages makes learning new reading skills easy and fun! This activity book based on the Passages novel The Power of the Rose includes a variety of vocabulary and comprehension exercises that will help students, particularly reluctant readers and English language learners (ESL/ELL), get to grips with English reading and comprehension. The activities reinforce a variety of language and reading skills, including summarising, tracking main ideas, making inferences, using referents, interpreting figurative language, using words in context and reading critically. The questions are all based on passages from The Power of the Rose, and this exciting story will help engage students in the activities.
