Summary:

This book and CD resource is a result of collaboration between Indigenous and non-Indigenous people, created to benefit both communities. It gives glimpses into the lives of the Eastern Kulin people, focusing on their culture before and at the time of contact with Europeans.

It is a 'learning through case-study' resource for middle and upper secondary students that looks at people, clans, the land, daily life, stories, ceremonies, beliefs and archaeology. The activities are designed to engage all students in quality learning, encouraging discovery and enthusiasm so that students and teachers can travel down the road towards achieving mutual satisfaction and knowledge of the rich history of the Eastern Kulin people in the classroom.

The supporting CD-Rom is an engaging learning tool for students, and the teacher resource book contains an extensive selection of worksheets including:

- Student and team work contracts
- Extensive vocabulary list
- Various assessment formats
- Student performance appraisals

Meet the Eastern Kulin learning activities are aligned with the C&SF II level 4–6 outcomes, and are embedded with Multiple Intelligences theory. It is a thoughtful, engaging and culturally sensitive learning program.
