Key Selling Points:

- Simple friendly language interspersed with real life stories explaining the effect that the Circles™ Campaign has on communities.
- Discover how you can make a difference.

Summary:

You, as an individual, can play a significant role in raising people in your community out of poverty!

The Circles Campaign is an action plan that brings together the efforts and resources of individuals, organisations, communities and government in a program proven to raise people out of poverty and make a real difference. This book shows you how to eliminate the barriers confronted by those in poverty, get started in building Circles out of poverty in your own community, expand social networks and connect with others outside your comfort zone. Learn how to be a bolder ally to those in need and become a transformational leader wherever you are.
