Summary:

This integrated character education system, focusing on 36 core character traits, has been compiled to help you educate your students both in mind and in character. Each chapter focuses on one desirable character trait, including a full definition; short lessons; objectives; student assignments; applications and display board ideas. Use ideas from Teaching Character every week to help fully realise the most positive attributes of your students' character, modelling good behaviour and affecting change, no matter what age they are.
