Summary:

Cyberbullying is the act of causing harm to others through the use of computers, mobile phones and other electronic devices. The authors help educators understand the potential consequences of this deliberate behaviour and present strategies for effective identification, prevention and response. Focusing on the way technology can facilitate or magnify bullying behaviour, this comprehensive resource offers information, guidelines and resources to give students the protection they need. It brings you the voices of those involved in real cyberbullying incidents. This book helps both parents and educators confront this new and common form of aggression in an informed and effective way.
