Summary:

Instead of carrying bulging backpacks, imagine students carrying mobile devices that allow them to access information from anywhere at any time. How do we transition from print to digital learning in the midst of economic challenges? This breakthrough guide shows educators how to affordably make the shift to one-to-one computing and transform schools into digital learning centres. Jonathan P. Costa, Sr., outlines a step-by-step road map of solutions for overcoming budget and systems barriers and moving forward with a sense of urgency. His field-tested strategies show how to:

- Acquire and pay for necessary equipment
- Save money by utilising open source, crowd sourcing and Bring Your Own Device
- Align instruction, assessment, curriculum and professional development for a 21st century learning environment

Content-rich downloadable resources provide adaptable tools, step-by-step guidance and resources. Digital Learning For All, Now will help educators make digital learning a reality on a district-wide scale that is supported at every level and prepare students for life and work in the 21st century. The time to act is now, and this guide shows you how.

Supporting Resources:
