Summary:

Confronting gaps in school achievement requires a systematic examination of the entire school system and a comprehensive problem-solving approach. Written for school leaders, this completely revised and expanded edition outlines 50 detailed and researched-based strategies for developing high-performing schools. Emphasising the provision of equal educational opportunities for all learners, this book is organised around six critical standards, focusing on alignment of resources with curriculum, student equality, and effective planning and development of resources. With field-tested best practices and an expanded bibliography and research base, this hands-on guide provides school leaders with strategies that give all learners the opportunity to succeed.
