Summary:

The Learning Communities Guide to Improving Reading Instruction provides the perfect framework, knowledge and tools necessary to create a community of educators focused on quality reading instruction and student success. This book will help educators across all year levels identify and apply new approaches, improve and add to their instructional repertoire, and ultimately benefit their students' reading performance by building confidence and raising achievement.

Key selling points:

- Provides a professional learning team centred approach to improving reading instruction.
- Valuable tables, charts and planning guides to facilitate discussion, reflection and goal setting.
- Uses reflective practice, including a reflective survey of 'look-fors' to identify strengths and weaknesses.
- Structured ground up approach to improve student's outcomes in literacy.

Supporting resources:

- Literacy Matters (CO7513)
- Whole-Faculty Study Groups (CO4492)
- Building the Reading Brain, PreK-3 (CO4379)
