Summary:

This essential facilitator's guide to The Moral Imperative of School Leadership provides staff developers and educational leaders with the tools needed to facilitate a workshop or study group, designed around Michael Fullan's groundbreaking book. Chapter-by-chapter activities focus on moral purpose and why it plays such a critical role in changing the context of school leadership. It explores in depth:

- Current barriers to effective school leadership
- The moral imperative at the school level
- The moral imperative within the system
- How individuals and the system can transform school leadership into a powerful new force

Highlights for the facilitator include:

- Chapter summaries
- Discussion questions
- Journal-writing exercises
- Applications to daily practice
- Sample workshop agendas
- Timed activities
- Suggestions for working with both small and large group sizes
- A professional development planning matrix
- A workshop evaluation form

This guide helps you effectively lead others through dialogue, reflection and application of Fullan's work in a number of settings and group sizes.
