Summary:

This exciting new volume shows primary teachers how to put into practice the principles described in Rich Allen's book Green Light Classrooms. Drawing from Cindy Rickert's real-life experiences as a teacher creating Green Light inclusive classrooms, the authors offer a wealth of practical tips, examples and ideas for involving students in active learning rather than traditional "chalk and talk" instruction. Readers will acquire implementation strategies to increase student interaction and motivation and ultimately improve achievement. Each lesson shows how the teacher used to present a lesson, outlines their new Green Light approach, and records the often-dramatic results this produced. Designed specifically to engage today's students, this guide offers tools and strategies to inspire best practices in every classroom.
