Summary:

In today's classroom, teachers are increasingly seeking ways to demonstrate that their students know what they are learning and are aware of why they are learning it. This groundbreaking guide shows how the combination of portfolios and student-led conferences can increase student understanding. Using this technique, students will be able to take charge of their learning, and are able to clearly communicate the goals of their education with fellow students, administrators and parents. The user-friendly and time-tested strategies outlined in this book have been successfully implemented in classrooms, and real-life examples are provided to illustrate how the approach can be applied at any year level and for any subject matter.
