Summary

A powerful, data-driven tool for school improvement and systemic change, curriculum mapping depends on strong administrative and teacher leadership for successful implementation. This comprehensive book shows how school- and district level leaders can guide an effective curriculum mapping initiative – one that results in positive, long-term improvements in student achievement.

Written by nationally known experts in curriculum mapping, this practical guide explains how to create the culture and structure needed to effectively align curriculum, meet standards and work collaboratively. Addressing the specific roles of district leaders, curriculum directors, principals and teacher leaders, the authors focus on:

- an overview of the key concepts and processes of curriculum mapping
- leadership strategies for each phase, including discussion of roles and responsibilities
- insights on developing effective teacher leadership, with suggestions for allocating time and resources
- information about how leaders can create professional development maps and professional roles maps
- real-life examples of educational leaders' curriculum mapping experiences

Discover valuable tools and insights that support knowledgeable, inspired leadership of curriculum mapping initiatives.
