Summary:

This updated edition of More Than 50 Ways to Learner-Centred Literacy provides user-friendly methods and strategies for delivering effective literacy instruction. The authors include more than 100 practical techniques that are grounded in a constructivist, learner-centred approach and demonstrate how to develop an environment that fosters vocabulary and reading skills, student interaction, fluency and comprehension, and assessment of student growth. With a new chapter on professional development for literacy coaches, this resource includes inventive ideas to promote continuous improvement in literacy teaching and learning. Lipton and Hubble provide research-based, student-centred and fun strategies to nurture thoughtful, lifelong readers.
