Summary:

Multicultural Legends and Tales contains ten chapters based on popular multicultural children's books and folktales that will enhance your primary literature program and promote critical and creative thinking. Each chapter contains questions and activities based on the six levels of Bloom's Revised Taxonomy: remembering, understanding, applying, analysing, evaluating and creating. The stories featured include Lon Po Po, Anansi the Spider, Strega Nona, Once a Mouse, Arrow to the Sun and The Girl Who Loved Wild Horses. Also included are project ideas and independent activities that focus on each chapter, and several extra, extension activities based on all ten featured stories.
