Summary:

This teacher guide works directly with the student book on Archaeology (EIM5142) and introduces students to the fascinating world of archaeology. With the help of the mind-stimulating activities, quizzes and puzzles included in the teacher's guide, as well as a glossary and helpful background information, teachers will be able to impart this information to students in meaningful, memorable ways. The unit includes definitions of archaeology and culture, and background information on a wide variety of archaeological finds from ancient Egypt, Mesopotamia, ancient China, ancient Greece, the Minoans and others. The material contained in these books provide pre- and post-tests to gauge students' levels of understanding. Complete with an abundance of pictures and diagrams, this exciting learning resource will aid teachers in making archaeology accessible to all students from Year Level/Grades 5-12
