Summary:

This book offers savvy advice, practical tools and examples from real schools to help both new and experienced principals and assistant principals improve teacher effectiveness and boost student achievement. The updated and enhanced third edition includes valuable resources for teacher evaluation and professional development programs, including:

- Tools and procedures for conducting preobservation conferences, classroom observations and postobservation conferences
- How-to steps for assessing the culture and climate of the school
- Strategies to address marginal teaching
- Techniques to support adult learning and professional development

Accompanied by downloadable resources, this is one handbook that principals should not be without.
