Summary:

Bestselling author Deborah Blaz helps you differentiate lessons for your students based on their learning styles, interests, prior knowledge, socialisation needs and comfort zones. This is the only book in print devoted solely to applying the principles and practices of differentiated instruction to the teaching of foreign languages. It provides detailed classroom-tested examples of activities and lessons plans to help you prepare and teach tiered lessons, as well as to differentiate by content, process and product. Also included is a chapter on differentiated assessment which includes show-what-you-know assessments, tiered assessments, contracts, performance assessments, personalised assessments, partner and group testing, and more.

The rich and diverse activities in his book focus on all aspects of foreign language learning including:

- Vocabulary (vernacular and academic)
- Speaking and Listening (question-and-answer activities, simulations, stimulations, etc.)
- Prereading, Reading and Postreading (activities, projects and strategies, etc.)
- Writing (books, blogs, note taking, etc.)

Differentiation practices featured within this book include:

- Multiple Intelligences
- Portfolios
- Learning centres
- Tiered lessons
- Collaborative learning groups
