Summary:

Developing a Thinking Curriculum in your School: A Handbook for Educators addresses the challenge of embedding a thinking curriculum within and across a school. Making use of over ten years' experience guiding educators in Australia and New Zealand, Michael Pohl outlines a five-step process that will assist schools in implementing a whole-school approach to deliver thinking into the curriculum. This book provides a framework for practices designed to ensure that the thinking curriculum becomes an enduring part of the culture of your school.
