Summary:

Heroes contains captivating, whole language, interdisciplinary units about a variety of unique men and women. There are 165 exciting pages of lesson ideas and blackline masters for use with upper primary and junior secondary students. Curriculum connections are established with activities in English, reading, science, geography, maths, art, music and life skills. Many of these activities encourage cooperative learning.

Heroes is divided into the following sections for easy thematic planning: Superheroes, Ancient Greek heroes, Medieval heroes, Pioneer heroes, Wartime heroes, Sports heroes, Heroes of science & invention, Space heroes, Medical heroes and Heroes of social causes.

Key selling points:

- Each unit contains useful features such as planning guides, curriculum links, suggested literature and research topics.
- Each unit includes a section entitled 'Relating the theme', which suggests activities for different areas of the curriculum, making integration easier.
- Includes a section on culminating activities to extend knowledge beyond a particular unit.
