

Professional Learning Communities at Work[®] Posters

Author(s): Richard DuFour, Rebecca DuFour, Robert Eaker, Thomas W. Many, Mike Mattos, Gavin Grift & Colin Sloper

Date Available: July 2019
ISBN: HBP489
Code/SKU: HBP489
RRP: $15.95
Format/Page No.: SRA3 (320 × 450 mm)
Year Level: Teachers and Administrators
Focus Area: Professional Learning Communities
Key Learning Area: Cross-Curricular

Summary

This set of five glossy, full-colour Professional Learning Communities at Work[®] posters are the perfect resource for any teacher team, leadership team or school striving to implement the PLCs at Work[®] process in their context.

Adapted from Learning by Doing: A Handbook for Professional Learning Communities at Work[®], Revised Third Edition, the best-selling guide for action that helps educators close the knowing–doing gap as they transform their schools into professional learning communities, these posters serve as visual representations of important aspects of the PLCs at Work[®] process, including:

- Four Critical Questions of a PLC at Work[®]
- The PLC Process: Three Big Ideas
- SMART Goals Are...
- Tips for Creating Teams Norms.

Empower your teachers, leaders and staff to easily interpret and internalise the critical components of the PLC implementation process using the Professional Learning Communities at Work[®] posters.

Other Resources

- Learning by Doing: A Handbook for Professional Learning Communities at Work, Revised Third Edition (SOT5473)
- Concise Answers to Frequently Asked Questions About Professional Learning Communities at Work, Revised Edition (SOT0461)
- Professional Learning Communities – Voices from the Field: A Complete Professional Learning Resource for Schools (HB5985)