Summary:

This is a book of social studies tests for middle year students. It will provide teachers with tools for keeping track of how students are mastering basic skills. It's everything you've wanted in a group of ready-made assessments. The tests cover all the basic skill areas for social studies. There are tests within five areas: world understandings, geography, map skills, world history and Australian history. In convenient and manageable sizes, each test covers skill areas such as economics, ancient world history or human geography. The tests are student-friendly and the students will be surprised that they are tests at all.
