Summary:

In 2007 Matt Levinson started a 1-to-1 laptop program at the Nueva School in California, confident that his knowledge of technology would help him accomplish this goal. He never imagined the challenges he and Nueva would face. So that other schools and educators can learn from Nueva's lessons, Levinson shares his experience integrating a laptop program and how teachers, students and parents discovered, dealt with and overcame challenges. Honesty and insightful anecdotes make this an indispensable guide for everyone looking for a path away from fear and into the future of education. Key concepts addressed in this book include Facebook, iTunes, online safety, privacy and teacher development.
