Summary:

What is effective teaching? Lessons are for Learning explores the notion of effective classroom practice, both challenging teachers to reflect upon why they teach in the way they do and offering a range of practical suggestions designed to make learning more effective. This book aims to stimulate thought and generate discussion among teachers with the intention to help them become more effective at their prime function – helping young people learn.

Key selling points:

- Tips and advice for different lessons based on conceptual lesson purpose, such as questioning skills and note-taking.
- Clearly explains what differentiation is and how to do it effectively.
- Outlines tried and tested practical teaching strategies in a no-nonsense way.
- Provides succinct suggestions on how to go about making lessons more effective and the importance of collaboration in improving practice.
