Summary:

Best Behaviour is a clear and well-organised starting point for improving behaviour and motivation, and creating the right emotional conditions for learning. It is an invaluable resource for any school aiming to improve behaviour. Based on the experience and good practice of many teachers and school administrators, Best Behaviour is a 'fire prevention manual' for a well-disciplined school, offering:

- pupil perspectives
- action points for staff
- action points for supporting staff
- action points for whole school management

Key selling points:

- The book incorporates all levels of education.
- Provides step-by-step and practical examples for teachers.
- Gives an insight to dealing with a range of different rationale including: respect, attention, friendship, routine, success, emotions, values, memory and motivation.
- An excellent resource to support new bullying legislation in schools.

Supporting resources:

- Bullying Prevention: Tips and Strategies for School Leaders and Classroom Teachers (PE4212)
- Managing Boys Behaviour (6697)
- Raising Boys' Achievement (NE3747)
- Cognitive Behavioural Training: A How-to Guide for Successful Behaviour (HB3070)
