Summary:

Foundations of Literacy outlines seven strands of practice for the early years upon which successful teaching of literacy skills depends. Written by literacy specialist Sue Palmer and early years consultant Ros Bayley, it draws on the advice and experience of many professionals involved with this age group. It provides fun activities for three- to six-year old children, designed to develop the skills, concepts and knowledge underpinning literacy. It also provides practical advice on helping children transfer this learning into their own, child-initiated activities, to build a genuine and solid foundation for literacy.

Key selling points:

- Covers valuable early learning ideas and is designed to develop the skills, concepts and knowledge underpinning literacy.
- Emphasizes pre-reading and pre-writing skills.
- Easy to use and incorporates practical ideas for the classroom.
- Balanced program to develop the whole child.
- Colourful and attractive presentation.
