Summary:

In the pages of Managing the Madness: A Practical Guide to Middle Years Classrooms you'll find innovative and specific ideas on discipline, humour, technology integration, student-teacher interactions, attention grabbers, classroom management, and much more. Jack Berckemeyer, known for his practical teaching strategies that engage and motivate young adolescents, tackles the most awkward situations that arise in middle level classrooms, which are not often considered in other books. Jack brings the latest research in teaching young adolescents to life through his repertoire of personal anecdotes, uncanny comprehension of student and teacher psychology, and real teaching savvy.
