FEATURES OF "WHO'S LISTENING?"

The exercises in Who's Listening? are designed to involve children in years 1-3 in active listening. Listening means not only hearing but paying attention to what is heard. The exercises in this book combine whimsical pictures with oral directions to help improve listening skills:

HOW TO USE "WHO'S LISTENING?"

1. Each student needs a copy of the activity sheet, crayons, and a pencil.
2. Explain to the students that they are to listen very carefully as you read the directions because you will say each step only once. Instruct students to do only what you tell them.
3. Read each step in the directions slowly and clearly.
4. Pause long enough after each step to give students time to complete what they have been told to do, but don't allow the pace to drag. Do not repeat any direction.
