Circle the prepositions in the paragraph below.

Jess and Marty live near an old cemetery. Whenever they go to the park, they walk through the graveyard. They climb over a fence and across fallen logs. Then they go into the cemetery. They walk under huge oak trees that stand on the bank of a stream. Sometimes they look at the gravestones that have been there for years and years. When Marty's younger brother is with them, they hurry to the park because he is afraid. Jess and Marty think the cemetery is interesting and fun during the day. But they never go near the place after the sun goes down.

WHAT A PREPOSITION IS

Prepositions are function words. They connect groups of words to other words in a sentence. The prepositions that are used most often are:

at	by	for	from	in	of	on	to	with
----	----	-----	------	----	----	----	----	------

Circle the prepositions in the sentences below. There may be more than one preposition in a sentence.

1. Rosa's alarm clock rings at eight o'clock in the morning.
2. She gets her dressing gown and slippers from the wardrobe.
3. Then she goes to the kitchen.
4. She eats breakfast with her mother and brother.
5. Sometimes she cooks breakfast for them.
6. Usually her mother has orange juice and cereal on the table.
7. Rosa and her brother Fred ride to school on the bus.
8. They ride home from school with their grandfather.
9. He buys them ice cream at Frosty's Freeze.
10. Fred always orders a cone with two kinds of ice cream.
11. Rosa likes nuts and chocolate fudge on vanilla ice cream.
12. Sometimes they eat so much ice cream that they can't eat the dinner their mother fixes for them.
