

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. Introduction	3
II. 5 Collaborative Action Research Case Studies – “The Evolution of Self-Evaluation”	11
Stage 1 – Involving Students in Defining Criteria – Sharon’s Story	13
Stage 2 – Teaching Students How to Apply the Criteria – Anne Marie’s Story	21
Stage 2 – Teaching Students How to Apply the Criteria – Dianne’s Story	33
Stages 3 & 4 – Giving Students Feedback on Their Self-Evaluations and Helping Students Develop Action Plans – Cheryl’s Story	45
Stages 3 & 4 – Giving Students Feedback on Their Self-Evaluations and Helping Students Develop Action Plans – Michelle’s Story	57
III. Additional Instruments for Teaching Self-Evaluation.....	69

NOTE

Throughout this resource book you will see the following icon appear at the top of some of the pages. The icon represents the 4-stage model teachers can use to help students get better at self-evaluation (as described on pages 5 & 6). If the icon has a black quadrant it means that the following information and instrument is especially useful for teaching that stage of the model.

