

CONTENTS

	Page
A Word of Thanks .....	i
Figures .....	x
Charts .....	xi
Action Forms .....	xiii
SIMSITS .....	xiv

INTRODUCTION

Chapter I: An Atmosphere of Excellence .....	3
In Pursuit of Educational Excellence .....	3
A Non-Elitist Meaning of the Term "Gifted" .....	3
The Ideal and the Reality of Models for Educational Change.....	3
Toward an Atmosphere of Excellence .....	4
Special Programs as Vehicles for Developing Schoolwide Excellence .....	5
The Importance of Time .....	8
Dividing and Conquering Time .....	9
Action Forms as a Plan for Time Management .....	9
Organizational Planning for this Book .....	10
Part I: Organizational Components of the Triad/Revolving Door Model .....	10
Part II: Service Delivery Components of the Triad/Revolving Door Model .....	10
On Systems, Models and Straightjackets! .....	13
A Transformed Role for the Specialist in Gifted Education .....	14
A Word About Words .....	15

Part I: ORGANIZATIONAL COMPONENTS OF THE TRIAD/REVOLVING DOOR MODEL

Chapter II: A Bird's Eye View of the Three-Ring Conception of Giftedness and the Triad/Revolving Door Model .....	19
Purposes and Criteria for a Definition of Giftedness .....	20
Schoolhouse Giftedness .....	21
Creative/Productive Giftedness .....	21
Research Underlying the Three-Ring Conception of Giftedness .....	21
The USOE Definition .....	22
The Three-Ring Conception of Giftedness.....	23
Discussion and Generalization .....	27

	Page
A Definition of Gifted Behavior .....	28
Discussion About the Three Rings .....	28
Overview of the Triad/Revolving Door Model .....	35
The Rationale for a More Flexible Approach to Identification .....	35
Principles Underlying the Model .....	36
First Level Identification—Forming the Talent Pool .....	36
Services to the Talent Pool .....	39
Second Level Identification—Revolving Into Advanced Level Enrichment and Accelerated Experiences .....	41
Research on the Triad/Revolving Door Model .....	43
 Chapter III: Major Organizational Components of Successful Triad/Revolving Door Programs .....	 45
Key Features of Successful Triad/Revolving Door Programs .....	45
Key Feature 1: The Golden Rule .....	45
Key Feature 2: Planning Prior to Program Implementation .....	46
Key Feature 3: Inservice and Administrative Support .....	47
Key Feature 4: The Schoolwide Enrichment Team .....	48
Key Feature 5: Program Ownership .....	48
Key Feature 6: Student Orientation .....	49
Key Feature 7: Communication with Prime Interest Groups .....	49
Key Feature 8: Flexibility .....	49
Key Feature 9: Evaluation and Program Monitoring .....	50
Strategies for Creating Program Ownership .....	50
Program Planning, Administrative Support and Inservice .....	51
Tapping the Talents of Staff Members .....	51
Sharing Resources .....	52
Sharing Students' Products .....	52
Involving Non-Program Students .....	53
Streamlining the Regular Curriculum .....	53
Involving Parents and Community Members .....	53
Communicating Events .....	53
Summary .....	54
Procedures for Developing the Schoolwide Enrichment Team .....	54
Who Should Be On the Enrichment Team? .....	55
Who Should Serve as the Chairperson of the Enrichment Team? .....	56
How Often Should the Team Meet and What Should It Accomplish? .....	57
Should the Enrichment Team Be Subdivided Into a Type I and Type II Committee? .....	60
Should Students' Interests Be Addressed Before Planning Enrichment Activities? .....	60
How Does the Enrichment Team Differ at the Secondary Level? .....	60
Community Resources and Support for Enrichment Programs .....	60
Procedures for Recruiting Resource Persons .....	61
Organizing and Disseminating Information about Community Resources .....	61
Revising and Updating the Directory .....	63

	Page
The Role of the Classroom Teacher .....	63
Teacher Training and Program Development Activities .....	63
My Child is Gifted .....	72
Who is "Gifted"? .....	78
Chapter IV: The Roles and Responsibilities of the Coordinator of a Schoolwide Enrichment Program.....	85
Assessing the Dimensions of the Coordinator's Job .....	85
Is This a New Program or Has One Existed in the District Before? .....	85
If a Program is Already in Place, What are Its Strengths and Weaknesses? .....	86
Whose Idea Was It To Start the Program? .....	86
Have a Definition, Identification System and Programming Model Been Selected? .....	87
Will the Coordinator Also Teach in the Program and What Percentage of Time Will Be Spent Carrying Out Each Responsibility? .....	88
Will Other Teachers Be Hired for this Special Program? .....	88
How Does the Triad/Revolving Door Model "Square" with State Department of Education Regulations and Guidelines? .....	89
A Five Year Plan .....	90
Needs Assessment .....	90
Steps in Developing a Five Year Plan .....	91
The Identification of Talent Pool Students .....	94
Deciding on the Size of the Talent Pool .....	94
Selecting a Cut-Off Score .....	101
Teacher Nominations .....	101
Alternative Pathways .....	105
Special Nominations .....	105
Modifications for Forming the Talent Pool at the Primary Grade Level .....	105
Avoiding Problems Before They Arise .....	106
Student Orientation .....	106
Student Orientation 1: General School Population .....	106
Student Orientation 2: Talent Pool Participants .....	111
Scheduling .....	117
The Period Exchange Approach .....	118
The Enrichment Block .....	118
Finding Time for Regular Type II Training .....	118
Concerns About Scheduling .....	120
Evaluating Schoolwide Enrichment Programs .....	125
Avoiding the Testing Trap .....	125
Student, Parent and Teacher Questionnaires .....	128
The Principal's Incident Report .....	128
Resource Room Teacher's Monthly Report .....	128
Record Keeping System for Students in the Resource Program .....	142
Student Product Assessment Form .....	143
Summary .....	143

	Page
Some Final Thoughts .....	144
Accepting Different Styles and Personalities .....	144
Budgeting .....	147
Continuation, Expansion and Improvement .....	148
Get Yourself a Camera .....	149
A Program Coordinator's 10 Commandments .....	150
Major Responsibilities of a Triad/Revolving Door Program Coordinator .....	152
Job Description of a Triad/Revolving Door Program Coordinator .....	153
Chronological Steps for the Implementation of a Triad/Revolving Door Program .....	154
Teacher Training Activities .....	160
The Objectives Game .....	160
The Gifted Program and the Working Press .....	174

Part II: SERVICE DELIVERY COMPONENTS OF THE TRIAD/REVOLVING DOOR MODEL

Chapter V: Assessing Student Strengths .....	181
Procedures for Assessing Student Strengths (Action Form 1) .....	181
Analysis of Abilities .....	184
Interest Assessment .....	186
Learning Styles Evaluation .....	194
Teacher Training Activities .....	202
How Do You Rate Them? .....	203
A Sensitive Issue .....	211
A Sticky Identification Situation .....	215
 Chapter VI: Curriculum Compacting: Procedures for Modifying the Regular Curriculum for High Ability Students .....	 221
Overview of Curriculum Compacting .....	221
Creating a More Challenging Learning Environment .....	221
Guaranteeing Proficiency in the Regular Curriculum .....	223
Finding Time for Enrichment and Acceleration Activities .....	223
How to Use the Compacting System (Action Form 2) .....	223
Identifying Curriculum Areas to be Considered for Compacting .....	225
Procedures for Compacting Basic Material .....	226
Designing Acceleration and Enrichment Activities .....	226
Examples of Curriculum Compacting .....	228
Example 1: Reading and Language Arts .....	228
Example 2: Mathematics .....	230
Example 3: Social Studies .....	230
Example 4: Group Compacting .....	231

Procedures for Instituting Curriculum Compacting Within a School or District .....	231
The Classroom Teacher and Curriculum Compacting .....	233
Involving Parents .....	233
Motivating Underachievers .....	233
Concerns About Compacting .....	235
Summary .....	235
Teacher Training Activities .....	235
What Should We Do For Joanie? .....	237
We All Know Who the Bluebirds Are .....	243
Chapter VII: Type I Enrichment: General Exploratory Experiences .....	247
Procedures for Planning a Comprehensive Type I Enrichment Program .....	247
Overview of the Type I Planning Guide (Action Form 3) .....	247
Procedures for Completing the Type I Planning Guide .....	253
The General Approach to Type I Planning .....	255
Guidelines for Identifying Sources of Type I Enrichment .....	256
Procedures for Recording Type I Resources (Action Forms 4-6) .....	259
Developing a Source File for Type I Resources (Action Form 7) .....	259
Procedures for Implementing a Comprehensive Type I Enrichment Program .....	259
Guidelines for Organizing Interest Development Centers .....	259
Disseminating Information About Type I Enrichment Experiences .....	275
Documenting Information About Type I Enrichment (Action Form 8) .....	275
Maximizing Payoff from Type I Experiences .....	275
Procedures for Evaluating Type I Enrichment .....	288
The Type I Matrix and Documentation Form as Evaluation Devices .....	288
Type I Evaluation Tools .....	289
Teacher Training Activities .....	289
Generating Lists of Type I Topics from Students .....	289
Generating Lists of Type I Topics from Teachers .....	289
The Ten Cent Type I Challenge .....	302
The Reluctant Community Resource .....	305
Chapter VIII: Type II Enrichment: Group Training Activities .....	309
Procedures for Planning a Comprehensive Type II Enrichment Program .....	309
Target Audiences for Type II Enrichment .....	309
Varieties of Type II Enrichment .....	312
The Organizational Plan for Developing a Comprehensive Type II Enrichment Program (Action Forms 9a-9d) .....	313
Additional Sources of Type II Materials .....	336
Needs Assessment and the Development of Awareness for Type II Training .....	336
Procedures for Implementing a Comprehensive Type II Enrichment Program .....	348
Scope and Purpose of the Materials and Activities Selection Worksheet (Action Forms 10a-10d) .....	348

	Page
General Approach for Completing the Materials and Activities Selection Worksheets .....	358
Materials Review, Evaluation and Selection .....	359
Enrichment Material Specification Form (Action Form 11) .....	360
Disseminating Information About Type II Enrichment .....	378
Spotting Talent in Type II Activities .....	379
Procedures for Evaluating Type II Enrichment .....	379
The Class Activities Questionnaire .....	379
Tests of Process Skills .....	381
Developing Cognitive Abilities Tests .....	381
Ross Test of Higher Cognitive Processes .....	381
The Synthesis, Evaluation and Analysis Test .....	381
Additional Approaches to Evaluating Type II Enrichment .....	387
Teacher Training Activities .....	387
Beyond Compacting .....	391

Chapter IX: Type III Enrichment: Individual and Small Group Investigations of Real Problems .....

Targeting on Type III Enrichment .....	395
Initiating Type III Enrichment Through Action Information (Action Forms 12a-12b) .....	395
Problem Finding and Focusing .....	410
Focusing on Methodology .....	412
The Editorial and Feedback Process .....	413
Finding Outlets and Audiences for Student Products .....	413
Examples of Type III Enrichment .....	424
Procedures for Implementing Type III Enrichment .....	424
The Management Plan for Individual and Small Group Investigations of Real Problems (Action Form 13) .....	424
The Role and Use of How-To Books .....	442
Specification Form for Methodological Resource Books (Action Form 14) .....	448
Directions for Completing the Type III Mentor Matrix (Action Form 15) .....	459
Suggestions for Conducting a Type III Fair .....	463
Establishing a "Research Foundation" .....	466
Procedures for Evaluating Type III Enrichment .....	467
The Student Product Assessment Form .....	467
"Data" from the Management Plan .....	477
Sharing the Student Product Assessment Form with Talent Pool Students .....	477
Additional Procedures for Evaluating Type III Enrichment .....	478
Teacher Training Activities .....	478
Learning the Process Yourself .....	478
Turning on Your Own Light Bulb .....	484
The Scavenger Hunt .....	490
The Intake Interview .....	495
From General to Specific .....	499