

The Story So Far

Jesse was the first wimp to get into the high school basketball training squad.

More than that, he had been selected above the much feared bully, Sly (Richard). The coach had not wanted Sly because of his bad attitude and the number of intentional fouls that he tried to get away with.

Jesse knew that Sly would probably try to get him, for beating him in the trials, but for now, he didn't care. He had made it into the basketball training squad.

He was in the second team, the same team as Luke, his taller and stronger friend. Luke had helped Jesse to do well in the trials. He had also helped him to avoid being attacked by Sly and his gang since he joined basketball.
