

Hawker Brownlow Education Information Sheet

But WHY? Philosophy Bear + Set of 5 Books

Author: Sara Stanley with Steve Bowkett

| | |
|------------------------|--|
| Date available: | 29 November 2005 |
| ISBN: | 1 74101 719 X |
| Code: | BWSET |
| RRP: | $139.95 |
| Format: | 210 x 295 mm |
| Extent: | 169 pp plus mini Philosophy Bear and four, beautifully illustrated books |
| Age range: | Early Childhood and Primary School P-6 |
| Category: | Classroom Practice, Philosophy, Thinking Skills |

Summary:

The perfect introduction to philosophy for children, But WHY? provides everything you need to introduce philosophy into your classroom. And for those who are already doing philosophy for children, it will provide a welcome source of fresh inspiration and new ideas. But WHY? offers a proven approach that uses the character of Philosophy Bear to make philosophy accessible to even the youngest children. The manual is a highly practical guide that can be used in all classrooms.

This pack comprises of a teacher manual, mini Philosophy Bear for classroom discussion, and four delightful picture books, including: If I Were a Spider, Philosophy Bear and the Big Sky, Dojen the Wanderer and Pinocchio The Cricket's Tale.

Key selling points:

- Includes inspiring case studies and examples that will encourage students to get involved in philosophy.
- Provides strategies that will lead to fruitful thinking.
- Games and activities are simple and ready to use.
- Photographs are used to illustrate the activities in the book.

Supporting resources:

- Philosophy for Young Thinkers: Getting Acquainted with Philosophy (1038)
- Philosophy for Young Thinkers: Philosophy for Young Thinkers: My Expanding World (1802)
- Education and Everyday Life: Short Stories with Long Endings (HB6746)

Hawker Brownlow Education
PO Box 8580
Heatherton VIC 3202
Tel + 61 3 8558 2444
Fax + 61 3 8558 2400
Web www.hbe.com.au
Email orders@hbe.com.au