

able (adjective) clever, intelligent, smart

We need able workers.

about (adverb) around, close by, near, nearby

The dog walked about.

above (preposition) beyond, higher than, over

The sky is above the trees.

accept (verb) get, receive, take, welcome

Do you accept my gift?

account (noun) article, report, story, tale

I wrote a short account.

ache (noun) hurt, pain, throb, sting

I can still feel the ache.

act (verb) behave, operate, perform

Why do you act the way you do?

add (verb) attach, bring in, combine, connect, join

Please add more words to the story.

adventure (noun) exploration, journey, tour, trip

We started a new adventure.

afraid (adjective) alarmed, fearful, frightened, scared

Why are you so afraid?

My Words

after (adverb) behind, later, next What comes after?

aid (verb) back, help, support
We must aid the workers.

aim (noun) goal, intent, plan, point
My aim is to be a good person.

alarm (verb) frighten, scare, startle, surprise
Their actions alarm us.

alike (adjective) close, matching, similar
The stories are alike.

alley (noun) avenue, lane, path, road, street
The driver turned into the alley.

always (adverb) eternally, ever, forever, regularly
I will always be your friend.

ancient (adjective) antique, elderly, old, aged
That painting is an ancient work of art.

angry (adjective) furious, mad, upset
Why was he so angry?

announce (verb) declare, express, say, speak, state, tell
When did you announce your plan?

My Words
