Taking a Look at Descriptions (pages 78–81)

One of my favourite places is the ice skating rink. First, you enter a heated room that has sturdy wooden benches. This is where you change into your skates. Then you go into the ice rink. Its as cold as a refrigerator. The ice looks like smooth glass. Lots of people are skating. The beginners creep along. Some hold the rail. Other skaters swoosh by. They are very graceful. Were they born on skates. The loudspeaker plays rock music. You skate and skate. The salty smell of piping hot chips finally leads you to the snack bar. You leave the rink tired and happy. You look forward to your next visit.
