PROJECTS

1. During the Middle Ages, books were hand copied in highly decorated writing. This art form, called manuscript illumination, was done in the monasteries of Germany. Choose a name or short poem to copy with your personal style of illuminated manuscript.
2. Stained glass decorates the windows of many of Germany's cathedrals. The windows tell religious stories or honor saints. Look at pictures of several stained glass windows. Use broad tip markers to draw a stained glass style design on cellophane or a large plastic bag. Hang your "stained glass" in a sunny window.
3. Use scraps of paper, fabric, etc., to create a mixed media collage or make a pencil rubbing of any raised surface (for example, a leaf, coin, or tree bark) in the style of Max Ernst.
