TRAVEL GAMES TIPS

Going on a trip? Then don't forget to include some fun activities for the time you'll be spending on the road, on the water, or in the air. Here are some tips for getting the most out of your holiday travels.

A PORTABLE FUN PACK

- ◆ Before your trip, gather together a 'fun pack'—a set of things that will help you occupy your time while travelling. Choose items that are small and portable and place them in a knapsack or a backpack.
- ◆ Skim through the ideas in this book and mark the games you think you'd like to play on your trip. Be sure to include in your fun pack any materials needed for those activities. Also include a snack and drink in case you get hungry while travelling.
- ◆ What and how much you take will depend on how long you plan to travel. Also, some things that are appropriate for one form of travel may not work for another. For example, you can listen to a tape cassette of your favourite music if you're travelling in your family car, but you won't be able to do that on a plane unless you have a portable tape or CD player with headphones.

WHAT TO TAKE

Here are some suggestions for your fun pack. Remember not to take so much that your fun pack is bulky and cumbersome.

- ◆ clipboard
- ◆ crayons
- ◆ crossword puzzles
- ◆ felt markers
- ◆ joke/riddle books
- ◆ magnetic games (such as checkers)
- ◆ paperbacks
- ◆ pencils
- ◆ portable radio (with headphones)
- ◆ rubber stamps
- ◆ stationery (include address book)
- ◆ stickers
- ◆ tape cassettes
- ◆ word searches
- ◆ video games

TICK IT OFF

Make a checklist to help you keep track of the various items you are taking in your fun pack. Tick off your items before you leave on your trip to make sure that you have everything you need. Keep your checklist in your knapsack or backpack for the rest of your trip.

Later, when you're ready to return home from your trip, use the checklist again to make sure you don't leave anything behind.
