Summary:

Pete Hall and Alisa Simeral lay out a practical pathway towards higher student achievement. Increase instructional effectiveness by implementing the principles of strength-based school improvement. Filled with clear, proven strategies and organised around two easy-to-use tools – the innovative Continuum of Self-Reflection and a feedback-focused walk-through model – this book offers a differentiated approach to coaching and supervision centred on identifying and nurturing teachers' individual strengths and helping them reach new levels of professional success and satisfaction. Anecdotes and examples from the field ensure you know what to look for, do and say in order to start seeing positive results.
