Summary

Stephanie Filio's Responding to student trauma: A toolkit for schools in times of crisis is the book every counsellor and educator needs right now.

Whether you and your students are facing community or individual trauma, or both at once, this quick reference guide gives you strategies to address it. Structured according to the often-overlapping sources of trauma – self/home, school, community, country/world – these pages are full of techniques and tools for counsellors, teachers, administrators, and school crisis teams to respond to students experiencing trauma.
