

Mentoring each other

Teachers listening, learning, and sharing to create more successful classrooms

Lana Parker and Diane Vetter

Date Available	November 2020
ISBN	9781760941475
Code/SKU	PBP1475
Price	$31.95
Format	210 × 297 mm, 139 pages
Topics	Teaching Practice School Improvement Professional Learning Communities

Summary

How can teachers learn from each other, build relationships and develop the knowledge and skills they need for more successful classrooms?

Mentoring each other offers practical ways teachers can support each other as they reflect on their practice, implement new strategies and strive for teaching excellence. Teachers will learn how to explore new ways to collaborate and learn from each other in formal and informal situations. Designed to support a system that is seeing an increase in new teachers, this timely book demonstrates that a mentoring relationship can benefit both new and experienced teachers. Full of strategies that are practical and easy to implement, the book offers solutions to common questions, opportunities and challenges that face teachers every day.

This remarkable book illustrates how a mentor can support and guide pre-service, new and experienced colleagues in a way that is meaningful, open, engaging and values-driven. It includes:

- ready-to-use Mentoring Moves that demonstrate how mentoring can be easily implemented in daily practice
- reproducible pages for each Mentoring Move
- practical advice for educators who engage in mentoring relationships
- valuable suggestions that help new teachers deal with classroom challenges
- an approach to mentoring that applies to a broad range of professional learning communities.

Based on extensive experience, this highly readable book includes personal histories and experiences around important values and advocates for honest reflections and meaningful feedback. An essential resource for all educators, the book champions reciprocal and ongoing processes of learning, listening and sharing.

Other resources

- Peer coaching to enrich professional practice, school culture, and student learning (115014)
- Forces of influence: How educators can leverage relationships to improve practice (120009)
- How schools thrive: Building a coaching culture for collaborative teams in PLCs at Work® (SOT7811)
- Creating a coaching culture for professional learning communities (SOT7566)